

AARON HENRY

AMERICAN LUXURY CRAFTSMANSHIP

the Arbor Collection

Sometimes it is better to take the scenic route. The road less travelled offers up some of the best that the North American continent has to offer. This collection represents a classic interpretation of nature, from sea to shining sea.

Each Aaron Henry jewel is a dazzling work of art. Exquisite gems and precious metals are brought to life by the finest American craftsmen employing techniques that we have developed and perfected over the last four decades.

A portion of the proceeds from this collection help preserve open spaces and natural wonders for future generations. Enjoy!
